

Resource Library

This is a unique resource facility housing collections of material finishes ranging from wood, stone and ceramics to plastic, glass, and fabrics. It also includes samples of building systems components (acoustics, electric and fire safety, HVAC, and lighting). A full-scale sectional build-up allows students to understand interior construction. A range of luminaire types and lighting systems accessories complete the collections.