

SDG 6.3.3

Free drinking water provided

Yes. The University of Sharjah provides free drinking water to students, staff, and visitors. Drinking water dispensers are available across the university, and the University supplies water to all units, offices, and colleges through Zula Water Company as well as water dispensers through Water Filtration project for drinking purposes.

