

Project title: Foreseeing the UAE's Future Housing Needs between 2020- 2040

Method: The research team collected available information and data, such as population data, the number of families, annual family structure data and the number of available housing units. A quantitative research approach was used with a sample size of (2000) families throughout the UAE

The results:

.Understanding the housing needs according to emirate.

.UAE Housing Needs up 2040 : approximately 267, 124 House

برنامج الشيخ زايد للإسكان
Sheikh Zayed Housing Programme

Impact and Outcomes

Developing the housing sector in the country and the region

Providing housing appropriate to environment and the economic level of citizens

Providing services, transportation, education and health to residents.

Housing projects have offered e family stability and well-being for the people of the Emirates

