

Model Pharmacy (M23-199C)

The model pharmacy prepares students for working in hospital and community pharmacies by providing education adapted to the circumstances of modern medicine. In the model pharmacy room, which is equipped with a computer for looking up drug information, emphasis is placed on training students how to communicate with patients, including explaining how to take medicines.

