

College of Pharmacy UOS students attending National competition in KSA (December 2022)

A team was nominated by the University of Sharjah from the College of Pharmacy, College of Health Sciences and College of Medicine representing an interdisciplinary and interprofessional activity participated in the national toxicology competition in KSA in December 2022

